

"The word was God... The word became flesh"

"In the beginning was the W word, and the W word was with God, and the W word was God. He was with God in the beginning. ... The W word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the capital O1 and O only, who came from the father, full of grace and truth" (John: 11 – two, 14).

Introductions are important and tricky. First, you need an opportunity to make an introduction. Either you or someone else must go out of their way to be introduced. Then, the introduction carries such weight. Every mother has said, "you have only one opportunity to make a first impression." In the first chapter of the Gospel of John, the writer is introducing us to Jesus Christ.
